HOPE IN FIGHT FOR CANAL USE

Chamber of Commerce Trusttees Hear that Senate May Not Rule Against Railroad Ships.

There is a prospect that the provision in the Canal tolls bill prohibiting railroad-owned ships from using the Canal will be cut out by the Senate, says George McK. McClellan in a letter to the Chamber of Commerce. The letter was read at a meeting of the trustees yesterday afternoon. McClellan said this provision couldn't be beaten in the House but might in the Senate.

The trustees took up a number of matters. Local steamship companies joined in a protest against the abolishing of the office of Shipping Commissioner here. The matter has already been taken up with the Delegate to Congress.

The report of the peace committee on the recent prize contest was read and the three additional prizes recommended some days ago were authorized by the trustees. Charles Averill & Co. of Paris wrote asking to be put in communication with a manufacturer of preserved pineapples. It was announced that McClellan's resignation, made public some time ago, would take effect on October 1. The Chamber as a whole will later pass resolutions thanking him for effective work. Routine correspondence was received.

HAWAII CIGARS

Smokers, smokers of the best cigars, have been trying the Hawaii cigar placed on the market through Fitzpatrick Bros. and made from the Kona tobacco from the Jared G. Smith plantation. The new cigars are finer, blinder and wrapper of clear Kona tobacco made up without reweaving or flavoring, the leaf just as it was shipped from the plantation. Those expert in passing an opinion declare that these cigars are finer than the best, although naturally some of the first were a little green. They are attractively boxed and high grade in every respect. Tobacco in the various stages of manufacture is on display in the windows of Fitzpatrick Bros. store, and it makes a brave showing for a home industry that gives every promise of success.
